Chesapeake, Virginia 23323

Dear Mr. Harverson:

The Virginia Radioactive Materials Program has received your application for radioactive material license 550-524-1, Electric Motor and Contracting Co – Chesapeake, VA. The agency considers your application as 'timely filed' since it was received before the expiration date. As a result, your license remains in effect until the agency completes the review of your application and issues you a new license.

An agency license reviewer may contact you in the near future to discuss your application and request further clarification. If you have any questions about the radioactive material licensing process or regulatory requirements 12VAC5-481 'Virginia Radiation Protection Regulations', please contact me at 804-864-8157 or anthony.sands@vdh.virginia.gov.

Sincerely,
